

Short breaks for Carers of disabled children in Trafford

A short break might include:

A day

An Evening

An Overnight or

A weekend

and could take place at home, it could also involve supporting parents in their caring role so that the whole family can enjoy activities together away from the home.

Referrals to the short break service can come from professionals or families themselves. To qualify for the short break service the child you care for must have complex health needs or have autistic spectrum disorder.
